LATEST OVERTURES OF
CHINA WILL BE REJECTED.

THAT COUNTRY MUST FIRST COMPLY WITH THE UNITED STATES' DEMANDS.

Minister Wu Presents the Latest Appeal to the State Department—What to Do With the Empress.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The American reply to China's latest appeal for a cessation of hostilities, received today from Li Hung Chang, has not yet been made known, and it is likely that the matter will be one of the main subjects of consideration at the Cabinet meeting tomorrow. But there is reason to believe that the overtures will in effect be rejected on the ground that the conditions laid down in the American note of August 12 have not been complied with, and unless complied with the Government's course must proceed without reference to China's appeal for a halt in the proceedings. The dispatch of August 12 said specifically that the United States was ready to enter into an agreement between the powers and the Chinese Government for a cessation of hostilities on condition that the relief forces should be permitted "to enter Peking unmolested" and escort the legation therefrom under such circumstances as the general commanding might lay down.
But up to the present time there is no evidence that the allied forces are unmolested at Peking or have received sanction of the Imperial Government to convey the legation to Tientsin without further troubles under the conditions laid down by the commanding general. On the contrary, all of the dispatches indicate that the allies are meeting with stubborn resistance and there is an entire lack of compliance with the conditions laid down by the United States in its dispatch of August 12. As stated, however, the Government has given no authoritative statement of its purpose in reply to China's application of today and there is still a slight chance that complete compliance with the demands of August 12 may be announced in the Peking dispatches before the final determination on the reply is made. But the disposition is clearly in the lines indicated.
China's last application for peace negotiations was received early today at the Chinese Legation and was transmitted by Mr. Wu to the State Department. Secretaries Hay and Root were out of the city, but Acting Secretary of State Adee went over the subject with the President. Earl Li's request is that the United States shall name Minister Conger or some other official to act as peace envoy for the cessation of hostilities. Li expressed his willingness to go to such point as the powers may desire and under the intimations made it is thought that Peking or Tientsin would be selected for the negotiations. The Chinese envoy proposed no terms as to the withdrawal of troops and made no other suggestions as to what was to come before the commission, his sole anxiety being to secure the cessation of hostil-ties.

The application is understood also to have been made to the Powers in the hope that if all would name a commissioner there would be a general council of peace between Li Hung Chang on the one hand and the several representatives of the nations on the other. Aside from the fact that the conditions on August 12 have not been complied with by China, it is probable that this Government would desire to take sufficient time to learn what the other Powers intend doing on the same line, as all are acting in unison. Moreover there are some unexplained features of Li Hung Chang's application, one of them being that while he asks the allies to cease hostilities he gives no assurance that he has the power to make the Chinese army and the rebellious Boxers cease their hostilities.

The situation at Peking was made clearer today from many sources. The latest advice appears from Consul Fowler at Chefoo, repeating a dispatch received from Consul Ragdale at Tientsin. The latter reports "Chinese troops surrounded in place grounds." The Japanese legation received a dispatch of the same general tenor, but more in detail, stating that the Chinese troops retreated on the 15th within the imperial palace and that they were surrounded there by the Japanese troops.

Admiral Remy also transmitted an authentic report from Peking on the 15th saying: "Troops moving on the imperial city."

These several dispatches from different sources establish clearly that the imperial palace and grounds were under siege. But not one of the dispatches is clear as to how late this condition of affairs existed. The Fowler dispatch is the latest to be received and is dated the 20th, but probably that is the date on which it left Tientsin. The Japanese dispatch also refers to the Chinese taking refuge in the imperial palace on the 15th, but does not bring the situation beyond that day. So the latest information, while showing the imperial city surrounded, does not disclose the issue of this situation nor how long it has continued.

Today's dispatches seem to make clear that the Emperor and the Empress Dowager have made their escape from Peking and that about the only present service of the imperial palace and grounds is as a asylum in which the demoralized Chinese soldiers are making a last stand. The Japanese legation's advice today showed that the banners of the imperial cortege were seen leaving Peking on the 12th, and that probably the Empress Dowager as well as the Emperor had left the city.

Consul General Goodnow advised the State Department that he had information from Chinese sources that the Empress Dowager had left Peking.

The attitude which the international forces will observe toward the Emperor and Empress Dowager is understood to have received official consideration among the Powers, resulting from a request by the Southern Viceroy that no personal indignity be shown China's rulers. In response to this it is quite generally understood that there will be no personal indignity to the Emperor and Empress Dowager, not because it is felt that there is any special consideration due them, but because China would be precipitated into a chaotic condition if the responsible heads of the empire lost their functions. In view of the general desire of this Government and the others concerned to keep China intact the disposition among officials is toward refraining from personal indignities to the Chinese rulers. It develops in this connection that all of the Powers recently rejected the proposition of the Consuls at Tientsin to destroy the tombs of the Ming dynasty. The proposed destruction was a threat held out to the Chinese in the hope of bringing them to terms. But the Powers rejected the proposal and thus gave significant evidence that anything calculated to give personal affront or indignity to the Chinese was not part of the present campaign.
